

The Lift Project (www.theliftproject.global) is an empowering, lifestyle-based education program that provides a unique path to mental wellness. Guided by science-backed strategies from the fields of Neuroscience, Lifestyle Medicine, and Positive Psychology, this program is designed to enhance your wellbeing and help you thrive.

Developed and presented by Dr. Darren Morton, an internationally recognized wellbeing expert, The Lift Project typically spans 10 weeks, exploring 10 life-enhancing topics. While the program is delivered online, it is crafted to encourage group engagement, making it a powerful tool for transformation in a variety of settings.

The Lift Project has positively impacted tens of thousands of individuals worldwide—in healthcare settings, workplaces, schools, universities, and entire communities.

Research studies on The Lift Project have demonstrated significant reductions in depression, anxiety, and stress, along with remarkable improvements in positive mental health aspects such as vitality and life satisfaction.

RESULTS

^22%
VITALITY

∨42%
DEPRESSION

∨38%
ANXIETY

∨31%
STRESS

To view a trailer of the program, visit The Lift Project website where you can also view a sample lesson.

To learn more, contact the UK delivery partner at hello@menospace.uk

The Lift Project is certified by the American College of Lifestyle Medicine and endorsed by the Australasian Society of Lifestyle Medicine.
www.theliftproject.global | contact@theliftproject.global